

A DELICIOUS cold drink for the first warm days may be quickly prepared from a tablespoonful of good cider vinegar, a handful of crushed strawberries, sugar to taste and a glassful of cold water; this is an extremely novel and refreshing beverage and if not too cold may be partaken of with impunity, no matter how great the thirst; the vinegar imparting a "snap" to it that is unlike other summer drinks.