

A "Different" Pieplant Pie — To be baked in one crust. Fill the crust with the tender stalks cut as for stewing. Sprinkle with one-half cupful of sugar mixed with two heaping tablespoonfuls of flour, and fill pie with cream, one-half to three-fourths cupful. Bake as usual. This is best when used the same day it is baked.