

A Kentucky Dish.

In the center of a plate or platter set a dish to serve as a mold, and butter the outside. Around this build a wall of mashed and well seasoned potatoes. Make the wall 4 inches high and 1 inch thick and smooth off with a knife. Then remove the mold and fill the place it occupied with cold boiled mutton that has been finely chopped and seasoned with 2 tablespoons butter, 1 small sliced onion and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon lemon juice, and set in a hot oven to brown.
