

Creamed Carrots With Peas.—Dice young carrots in small pieces, and cook in salted water; drain, arrange in a mound on a hot platter and cover with cream or cream dressing. Reserve some of the carrots to sprinkle over the top. In the meantime heat a can of peas and arrange them around the edge of the platter with butter and salt to taste.