

Grapefruit sections (either fresh or canned) served with crisp shredded cabbage and plenty of raisins well dressed with French dressing make a fine emergency salad—when you are just out of salad greens and other vegetables.