Let's say you want an unusual dessert for a children's party or a refreshing palate tickler for 10 p. m. of a hot day. You really can't beat an ice for such a purpose. Particularly if it has a unique twist of some sort to specially recommend it. Now here is such a frozen dessert. It has "that something" which lifts it definitely above the commonplace. Big and little people alike will remember this new way of serving a home-made ice. Mix 1 cup of Crushed Hawaiian Pineapple with 1 cup sugar, 2 cups water, the juice of half a lemon and the white of an egg beaten quite stiff. Then freeze. Shape the ice with a tablespoon and roll it in shredded cocoanut (or macaroon crumbs). Serve with Crushed Hawaiian Pineapple.
